

Dear John,

It has been some time since I wrote to you, but now I've purchased my own handwriting font from Quantum Enterprises (www.quantumenterprises.co.uk/fonts) I just had to show you!

Believe it or not, I typed this message. I can't believe how uncannily like my own handwriting this looks. Now my messages can have that personal touch.

Please write back and let me know what you think.

All the best,

Lisa
