

Dear John,

it has been some time since I wrote to you, but now I've purchased my own handwriting font from Quantum Enterprises (www.quantumenterprises.co.uk/handwriting-fonts) I just had to show you!

Believe it or not, I typed this message. I can't believe how uncannily like my own handwriting the looks. Now my messages can have that personal touch.

Please write back and let me know what you think.
