This handwriting analysis was conducted by

Mr. Andrew Hunt

Andy Hunt - Graphonomer

The preceding report contains the results of the handwriting analysis, as generated by the Graphonomizer™ computer program. The personality chart shows scores ranging from 1 to 10 for each of the eight personality traits. Where the score is high for a particular trait (6 or higher), it is extremely likely that the subject of the handwriting analysis will exhibit most of the traits given in the relevant part of the personality description. Lower scores indicate that some aspects of that personality trait are shown. When a personality trait is not scored, it does not necessarily indicate that the subject will not exhibit that aspect of personality and behaviour - it merely shows that this trait was not revealed in the script. The personality description gives details about the traits that have scores, and reveals other aspects of the writer's personality and behaviour from the many handwriting characteristics examined. If you have any comments, queries, or questions regarding the results of the analysis, please do not hesitate to write to the address below. As always, all comments and communications with regards to the content of this handwriting analysis, and the results produced, will remain strictly confidential. To date, the computer program has produced an 85% success rate from feedback and comments regarding analyses conducted.

Important Notes - As this analysis could be extremely revealing, this document (and the information contained in the personality description) should remain the confidential property of the named individual. If the handwriting used for this analysis does not belong to you, please use extreme caution when passing this information to the subject.

No liability can be accepted for misinterpretation of the handwriting sample by Quantum Enterprises, or for misinterpretation by the named instigator of the analysis, nor for misinterpretation by the subject of the analysis. No liability can be accepted for the accuracy of the analysis, or the use, or misuse, of the information provided. Although this certificate is signed, the signature is only used as an indication of authenticity for this certificate. It is not a declaration of accuracy. Handwriting analyses which have been conducted on-line are not verified prior to reproduction as certificates. The information in the analysis remains the confidential property of the named instigator, who accepts full responsibility for any outcome relating to the disclosure of this information to a third party.

The text of this analysis is based almost entirely on the book 'The Hidden Language Of Your Handwriting', by James Greene and David Lewis, published by Pan books and Souvenir Press.
